

November 18, 2022

Sterigenics Statement Regarding Verdict in Fornek Trial

“On November 18, 2022, the Fornek trial concluded, and the jury rendered a full defense verdict, finding Sotera Health, Sterigenics and their co- defendant not liable and awarding plaintiff Teresa Fornek no compensatory or punitive damages.”

“The jury’s verdict in this matter reflects the careful consideration and understanding of the science and other evidence presented at trial. Sterigenics remains committed to our mission of Safeguarding Global Health®. As we have done consistently throughout our history, we will continue to operate in compliance with applicable rules and regulations to ensure the safety of our employees, the communities in which we operate and patients around the world.”